

Welcome to Lawyers' Mutual. We look forward to growing our partnership with you and your company. Below you will find some information related to frequently asked broker questions to assist you as you begin to work with us. Lawyers' Mutual now offer 15% commission on all new business placed with us.

How Our Rate Works

Lawyers' Mutual's Standard Program provides every firm with an individualized premium that is based on the firm's areas of practice, limits, claims history and location. Along with our excellent Standard Program, we offer three unique specialized programs; Strong Start Program for lawyers practicing less than 36 months, LILP, simple and sustainable for low income lawyers designed to help increase access to justice, and Insurance Defense Program for firms with at least six attorneys and at least 90% insurance defense work.

New Business

All new business applications should be emailed to lmic@lawyersmutual.com along with a copy of the firm's letterhead. A Lawyers' Mutual application is required for quoting purposes. A broker rating tool has been included with this packet for indication purposes. If a quote is accepted and a policy purchased, the applicant should return the signed quote and W-9 along with payment. Payment can be made online via ACH by the broker or credit card/ACH by the applicant. A written check can also be sent in via USPS.

Renewals

A renewal premium estimate will be emailed to the broker's primary email account (unless otherwise requested via hardcopy) approximately 60 days prior to their renewal date. The renewal premium estimate includes a Renewal Update Request to be completed by the insured. The premium indication is based on the expiring areas of practice we have on file for the insured. If there is a change in areas of practice, there may be a change in premium.

The completed Renewal Update Request, letterhead and payment must then be returned to Lawyers' Mutual prior to expiration date in order to renew the policy.

Digital copies of a renewal can be emailed to renewals@lawyersmutual.com.

Adding & Deleting Attorneys

We require all changes to be submitted in writing and notification regarding any attorney changes must be made within 30 days of the effective change taking place. For additions, complete a Supplemental Application. For deletions, provide a written request and emailed to lmic@lawyersmutual.com.

Increased Limits

Increased limits are available for consideration at time of renewal and only one limit increase step is permitted at this time. The exception to this rule is if there is a contractual requirement requiring the midterm or additional step increase (evidence of contractual requirement needs to be provided). Complete an Increased Limits Application and email this request to lmic@lawyersmutual.com.

Customer information, including names, contact information and expiration dates for applications or policies submitted to or placed with the Company by Producer (the "Policyholder Data"), shall be the property of Producer. The Coverage

2.1 Indemnity.

Subject to the terms and conditions of this policy, applicable legal authority, and in reliance upon the representations made in the Applications, the Company agrees to pay on behalf of the Insured all sums in excess of the Deductible which the Insured shall become legally obligated to pay as Damages as a result of CLAIMS FIRST MADE AGAINST THE INSURED DURING THE POLICY PERIOD AND REPORTED IN WRITING TO THE COMPANY DURING THE POLICY PERIOD:

- (a) Based on any act, error, omission or Personal Injury in the performance of Professional Services rendered or that should have been rendered by the Insured; or
- (b) Based on any act, error, omission or Personal Injury committed by any Insured who is a non- Lawyer Employee of the Named Insured.

PROVIDED THAT such act, error, omission or Personal Injury happens on or subsequent to the effective date of the first policy issued to the Named Insured or any Predecessor Firm by the Company and continuously renewed and maintained in effect to the Effective Date of this policy or such earlier date as set forth in an endorsement to this policy, and before the Expiration Date.

PROVIDED FURTHER THAT no Claim (including a Multiple Claim) shall be deemed first made against the Insured during the Policy Period if such Claim or any act, error, omission or Personal Injury giving rise to such Claim was reported by the Insured prior to the Effective Date of this policy to the Company or to any other professional liability insurer, or was known to the Insured prior to the Effective Date of this policy.

2.2 Defense and Settlement.

The Company will have the right and duty to defend the Insured and to pay Claim Expenses, and to appoint counsel of the Company's choice to defend the Insured, as to any Claim described in Section 2.1, even if any or all of the Claimant's allegations are groundless, false or fraudulent.

The Company may investigate, negotiate and, with the written consent of any Insured against whom a Claim has been made or the Named Insured, settle any Claim. The Company shall have the right, but not the obligation, to initiate and participate in settlement negotiations with a Claimant at any time without the consent of an Insured.

If all Insureds against whom a Claim has been made and the Named Insured shall refuse to consent to any settlement recommended by the Company and acceptable to the Claimant and shall elect to continue to contest the Claim, or if all Insureds against whom a Claim has been made and the Named Insured shall refuse to allow the Company to satisfy any judgment against an Insured, whether or not final, then the Company's liability shall not exceed the amount for which the Company would have been liable for Damages and Claim Expenses at the time the Claim could have been settled or the judgment satisfied.

The Company shall not be obligated to pay any Damages or Claim Expenses or continue to defend any Claim after the Limit of Liability - Each Claim or the Limit of Liability - Policy Aggregate has been exhausted by payments of Damages and/or Claim Expenses. Upon such exhaustion, the Company shall have no further duty to defend and shall withdraw from further defense.

2.3 Supplemental Coverages.

The Company will make the following supplemental payments:

- (a) Disciplinary Proceedings: The Company will reimburse the Insured for reasonable costs and attorneys' fees incurred by the Insured, through counsel selected by the Insured, in connection with any Disciplinary Proceeding brought against the Insured during the Policy Period and reported to the Company during the Policy Period. The Company's liability in connection with all such Disciplinary Proceedings is limited to $50,000 per Policy Period. The Claim Expense Allowance shall not apply and no Deductible will be due with respect to such a Disciplinary Proceeding.
- (b) Attendance at Trial or Arbitration: The Company will reimburse the Insured for actual loss of earnings and reasonable expenses, up to $500 per day and $5,000 per Claim, incurred by the Insured at the Company's written request in connection with attendance at trial or arbitration of any Claim. However, no such payment will be made with respect to any Claim for which the Insured refused to consent to a settlement acceptable to the Company and Claimant, or for any Claim with respect to which any Insured is in breach of any of its obligations under the policy, including but not limited to payment of the Deductible. Any reimbursement under this Section will be subject to Section 4.3.
- (c) Subpoena Assistance: The Company may, at its sole discretion, retain an attorney to provide advice relating to a subpoena received by the Insured regarding production of documents, to prepare the Insured for sworn testimony, and to represent the Insured at deposition of the Insured, provided that the subpoena arises out of a lawsuit to which the Insured is not a party and relates to a matter in which the Insured performed Professional Services. Any notice the Insured provides the Company of such subpoena shall be deemed notice of a potential Claim pursuant to Section 5.2. The Claim Expense Allowance shall apply, and the Deductible will be due with respect to such subpoena assistance.
- (d) Pre-Claim Assistance: Prior to the date a Claim is made, the Company may, at its sole discretion, appoint counsel to investigate a potential Claim the Insured reports in accordance with Section 5.2. The Claim Expense Allowance shall apply, and the Deductible will be due with respect to such pre-claim assistance.

2.4 Policy Territory.

This policy applies to Claims arising out of acts, errors or omissions or Personal Injuries occurring anywhere in the world, provided that the Company shall have no obligation to pay any amount as Damages pursuant to a judgment or award made in any suit or proceeding brought in a jurisdiction outside of the United States (including its territories and possessions) or Canada, or in any suit or proceeding brought within the United States to enforce or collect upon a judgment or award made in a suit or proceeding brought in a jurisdiction outside of the United States (including its territories and possessions) or Canada, or defend the Insured pursuant to Article 2, Section 2.2 in such suit or proceeding. However, the Company may, at its option, assume the defense of such a suit or proceeding. Even if the Company defends such a suit or proceeding, it shall have no obligation to pay any amount on behalf of the Insured with respect to any judgment or award of Damages in such proceeding.

2.5 Reduction of Claim Payment.

The Company shall reduce any sum otherwise payable on behalf of the Insured as Damages with respect to a Claim by an amount equal to (a) any amount received by the Insured, or any assignee of an Insured, on or after the date such Claim is first made, from or on behalf of the Claimant, plus (b) any amount claimed, as of the date payment is made on behalf of an Insured by the Company as Damages, by any Insured or any assignee of an Insured for Professional Services rendered to the Claimant.

2.6 Extended Reporting Option.

Upon Termination, the Named Insured shall have the right, within 30 days of the Expiration Date and upon payment of an additional premium, to have issued an Extended Reporting Period Endorsement covering Claims first reported during the Extended Reporting Period arising from acts, errors, or omissions or Personal Injuries occurring prior to the Expiration Date and on or subsequent to the effective date of the first policy issued to the Named Insured or any Predecessor Firm by the Company and continuously renewed and maintained in effect to the Effective Date of this policy (or such earlier date as provided in an endorsement to this policy). The Extended Reporting Period Endorsement premium will be a percentage of the premium paid for this policy, subject to raterating the Named Insured as of the Termination date, as follows:

Extended Reporting Period	Percentage
1 year	100%
3 years	180%
5 years	220%
Lifetime	285%

Issuance of such Extended Reporting Period Endorsement shall not increase the Limit of Liability – Each Claim or the Limit of Liability – Policy Aggregate.

If, on the date of Termination, the Named Insured has failed to pay a premium due or has failed, after demand, to reimburse the Company such amounts as the Company has paid as Damages or for Claim Expenses in excess of the applicable Limits of Liability, or within the amount of the applicable Deductible, or has otherwise failed to pay other amounts due the Company, the Named Insured shall not have the right to have such Extended Reporting Period Endorsement issued.

After exhaustion of the $50,000 Claim Expense Allowance, the Limit of Liability - Each Claim and the Limit of Liability - Policy Aggregate shall be reduced by Excess Claim Expenses and Damages.

4.4 Multiple Insureds Claims and Claimants.

A Multiple Claim shall be deemed one Claim subject to the Limit of Liability - Each Claim under the policy applicable to the earliest Claim which is part of the Multiple Claim. The inclusion in a Claim of more than one Insured or the making of Claims by more than one Claimant shall not operate to increase the number of Claims or the Limit of Liability - Each Claim or Limit of Liability - Policy Aggregate.

4.5 Deductible.

The Deductible stated in the Declarations shall be applicable to Damages and Claim Expenses with respect to each Claim.

4.6 Reimbursement.

If the Company has paid any amounts as Damages or Claim Expenses in excess of the applicable Limit of Liability - Each Claim or Limit of Liability - Policy Aggregate or within the amount of the applicable Deductible, all Insureds named in the Claim and the Named Insured shall be jointly and severally liable to the Company for any and all such amounts and, upon written demand, shall pay such amounts within 30 days to the Company.

ARTICLE 5. Claims

5.1 Notice of Claim or Suit.

As a condition precedent to the Insured's right to a defense and/or indemnity under this policy, the Insured shall IMMEDIATELY, and during the Policy Period, give to the Company written notice of any Claim made against the Insured by email to tender@lawyersmutual.com or pursuant to Section 6.11. Such written notice shall include:

- (a) the specific act, error, omission or Personal Injury giving rise to the Claim;
- (b) the injury or damage which has or may result from such act, error, omission or Personal Injury; and
- (c) the circumstances by which the Insured first became aware of such act, error, omission or Personal Injury.

In the event suit is brought against the Insured, the Insured shall IMMEDIATELY, and during the Policy Period, forward to the Company every demand, notice, summons or other process received by such Insured.

Even though it may not qualify as a Claim under this policy, the Insured shall IMMEDIATELY, and during the Policy Period, give to the Company similar written notice of any request that the Insured enter into an agreement to toll a statute of limitations, or any required or requested participation in hearings or proceedings.

5.2 Notice of Potential Claim.

If, during the Policy Period, the Insured shall first become aware that an Insured has or allegedly has committed an act, error or omission or Personal Injury as to which the Insured reasonably believes a Claim may be made, and if, during the Policy Period, the Insured gives the Company written notice of:

- (a) the specific act, error or omission or Personal Injury;
- (b) the injury or damage which has or may result from such act, error or omission or Personal Injury;
- (c) the circumstances by which the Insured first became aware of such act, error or omission or Personal Injury, then any Claim subsequently made against the Insured based on such act, error or omission or Personal Injury shall be deemed made and reported in writing on the date such notice is received by the Company.

5.3 Assistance and Cooperation of the Insured.

No Insured shall be entitled to defend itself or to be defended by any other Insured for a Claim. All Insureds shall, without charge to the Company, assist and cooperate with the Company in connection with defending Claims and investigating coverage, including:

- (d) giving written notice to the Company of the Insured's right to demand or reject arbitration of a Claim and exercising such right as instructed by the Company; and,
- (e) not making any payments, admitting any liability, settling any Claims, assuming any obligation, or incurring any expense without the prior written consent of the Company.

5.4 Subrogation/Recoveries by Insured.

In the event of any payment under this policy:

- (1) the Company shall be subrogated to all the Insured's rights of recovery therefor against any person or organization, and the Insured shall execute and deliver all instruments and papers and do whatever else is necessary to secure such rights. The Insured shall do nothing to prejudice such rights. The Company shall have the right to pursue subrogation in the name of the Insured or in its own name;
- (2) the Company shall be entitled to payment of any sanctions or return of costs or attorneys' fees awarded to an Insured as to any Claim being defended by the Company;
- (3) the Company shall be entitled to any recovery obtained by an Insured through a malicious prosecution or abuse of process claim brought by such Insured against any Claimant or Claimant's counsel.

The Company shall not exercise any such subrogation rights against any Insured, except the Company may exercise rights of subrogation against an Insured with respect to any Claim brought about or contributed to by the dishonest, fraudulent, criminal, malicious or knowingly wrongful acts, errors or omissions committed by or at the direction of, or ratified by, such Insured or where such Insured intended to inflict the harm out of which the Claim arises or acted with a conscious disregard of the rights of others. The Company may pursue any subrogation or contribution rights which may exist with regard to any other coverage possessed by an Insured.

Any amount recovered as provided in this Section 5.4, shall be apportioned as follows: First, for the repayment of the Company's expenses incurred toward subrogation or recovery; second, to Damages and/or Claim Expenses paid by the Company; third, to any loss and expense payment by the Insured in excess of any Deductible(s); fourth, to any loss and expense payments by an excess carrier on behalf of the Insured; fifth, to any loss and expense payments by any primary carrier on behalf of the Insured; and last, to repayment of the Deductible.

5.5 Arbitration.

All disputes between an Insured and the Company, including but not limited to disputes with respect to (1) coverage; (2) liability for premiums, deductibles, or other amounts; (3) the handling of any Claim; or (4) any term of condition of the Policy, shall be resolved by arbitration, and such arbitration shall be governed by the provisions of the California Arbitration Act, Sections 1280 through 1294.2 of the Code of Civil Procedure. If a dispute subject to arbitration hereunder should arise, either party may make a demand for arbitration by filing a demand in writing with the other. There shall be three arbitrators, one named in writing by each of the parties within ten (10) days after demand for arbitration is given and a third chosen by the two appointed. Should either party refuse or neglect to join in the appointment of the arbitrator(s) or to furnish the arbitrator(s) with any papers or information demanded, the arbitrator(s) are empowered by both parties to proceed ex parte.

Arbitration shall take place in the City of Burbank, County of Los Angeles, State of California, and the hearing before the arbitrator(s) shall be at the time and place within said city as is selected by the arbitrator(s). The arbitrator(s) shall select such time and place promptly after or their appointment and shall give written notice thereof to each party at least 20 days prior to the date so fixed. At the hearing any relevant evidence may be presented by either party, and the formal rules of evidence applicable to judicial proceedings shall not govern. Evidence may be admitted or excluded in the sole discretion of the arbitrator(s). Said arbitrator(s) shall hear and determine the matter and shall execute and acknowledge their award in writing and cause a copy thereof to be delivered to each of the parties.

The decision of any two arbitrators shall be final, binding and conclusive. If three arbitrators are selected under the foregoing procedure but two of the three fail to reach an agreement in the determination of the matter in question, the matter shall be decided by three new arbitrators who shall be appointed and shall proceed in the same manner, and the process shall be repeated until a decision is finally reached by two of the three arbitrators selected.

Either party has the right to petition the Superior Court to compel arbitration or to compel appointment of an arbitrator. Either party may also petition the Superior Court to confirm, vacate, modify or correct any arbitration award. Each party shall pay for its own counsel in such arbitration, unless otherwise provided by law. The costs of such arbitration shall be borne equally by the parties or in such proportions as the arbitrator(s) shall determine.

This Section 5.5 is not to be construed to give a direct right of action against the Company by a Claimant not otherwise provided by law.

5.6 Action Against the Company.

No action shall lie against the Company unless, as a condition precedent thereto, the Insured has fully complied with all the terms of this policy, nor until the amount of the Insured's obligations to pay has been fully and finally determined either by judgment against the Insured after actual trial or by written agreement of the Claimant and the Company.

Nothing contained in this policy shall give any person or organization any right to join the Company as a defendant in any action against the Insured to determine the Insured's liability. Bankruptcy or insolvency of the Insured or the Insured's estate shall not relieve the Company of any of its obligations hereunder.

5.7 False or Fraudulent Claims.

If any Insured shall commit fraud in proffering any Claims, as to amount or otherwise, this insurance shall become void as to such Insured from the date such fraudulent Claim is proffered.

ARTICLE 6. Other Conditions

6.1 Applications.

By acceptance of this policy, each Insured agrees that the statements in the Applications are each of the Insureds' representations, that they are material, and that this policy is issued in reliance upon the truth of such representations as to all Insureds.

6.2 Integration.

This policy, including the Declarations, Applications and any endorsements, embodies the entire, final and binding agreement between the Insureds and the Company or any of their respective agents relating to this policy and no other statement or representation, written or oral, express or implied, has been received or relied upon by the Insureds in purchasing this policy.

6.3 Conformity to Law.

Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, in the event that any term or condition of this policy shall be held void, voidable or unenforceable, the remaining portions shall remain in full force and effect.

6.4 Multiple Policies.

If any Insured has a right to defense or indemnity for a Claim under more than one policy issued by the Company, then the most the Company is obligated to pay for Damages and Claim Expenses with respect to such Claim is the highest Limit of Liability - Each Claim under any one of those policies, subject to the Deductible due under such policy. Any amount paid shall be deemed paid under the policy providing such highest Limit of Liability - Each Claim or, in the event the Limit of Liability - Each Claim of multiple applicable policies are identical, the Company shall have discretion to determine under which policy payment will be made.

6.5 Other Insurance.

This policy shall be in excess of any other valid and collectible insurance available to the Insured, whether such other insurance is stated to be primary, contributory, excess, contingent or otherwise, unless such other insurance is written only as a specific excess insurance over the limits of liability provided in this policy. No policy issued by the Company shall be considered other valid and collectible insurance within the meaning of this Section.

6.6 Policy Changes/Non-Waiver.

Notice to or knowledge possessed by the Company or any agent or other person acting on behalf of the Company shall not effect a waiver or a change in any part of this policy or estop the Company from asserting any right under the terms of this policy, nor shall the terms of this policy be waived or changed except by endorsement issued to form a part of this policy. No breach of this policy or any provision herein by any Insured can be waived except by an express written waiver executed by the Company. Waiver of any one breach shall not be deemed a waiver of the same or other provisions of this policy.

6.7 Assignment.

No Insured may assign any rights against the Company or grant a lien in the policy benefits to any person or entity, and no such assignment or lien shall be binding on the Company.

6.8 Cancellation.

This policy may be cancelled by the Named Insured by surrender thereof to the Company or to any of its authorized agents or by written notice to the Company stating when, thereafter, such cancellation shall be effective. If cancelled by the Named Insured, the Company shall return to the Named Insured a proportion of the premium determined in accordance with the Company's standard practices which may include use of a customary "short rate" table. The Company may offset the return premium against sums otherwise due and owing to the Company by the Named Insured.

This policy may be cancelled by the Company by mailing to the Named Insured, and to the producer of record, if any, written notice stating when, not less than thirty (30) days thereafter, such cancellation shall be effective. However, if the Company cancels the policy because the Insured has failed to pay premium when due, or for fraud, this policy may be cancelled by the Company by mailing a written notice of cancellation to the Named Insured and his producer of record, if any, stating when, but not less than ten (10) days thereafter, such cancellation shall be effective. If cancelled by the Company, returned premium shall be computed pro rata. The Company may offset the return premium against sums otherwise due and owing to the Company by the Named Insured. Premium adjustment may be made at the time cancellation is effected or as soon as practicable thereafter. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Company may cancel this policy if the Named Insured is subject to dissolution and there is no successor firm. Any such cancellation shall not affect the liability of the Named Insured for premiums then due.

6.9 Premium.

The premium for this policy is as set forth in the Declarations. Should a person become an Insured pursuant to Section 1.15 during the Policy Period, the Company may assess additional premium for the coverage afforded to such person. Any such additional premium is due and owing immediately upon assessment.

6.10 Death, Incompetency or Bankruptcy of Insured.

If an Insured dies or is adjudged incompetent or bankrupt, this policy shall inure to the benefit of the legal representative of such Insured. Death, bankruptcy or insolvency of the Insured or the Insured's estate shall not relieve the Company of any of its obligations hereunder, except the Company then may settle a Claim without the consent of the Insured or its Executor/Administrator, Bankruptcy Trustee, Conservator or other legal representative.

6.11 Notices.

All notices to the Company required hereunder shall be sent to Lawyers' Mutual Insurance Company, 3110 West Empire Avenue, Burbank, California 91504. All notices to the Company or the Insured shall be in writing and shall be deemed effective on the date of delivery if delivered personally (and a receipt obtained therefor), on the postmark date if sent by registered or certified mail, or on the date actually received if sent by any other means, including facsimile.
